

SHAMPOO

 Simile

This says that something is like something else: The river was like a winding snake.

Hyperbole

An extreme exaggeration to make a point: I slept for so long, I had a beard when I woke up!

Alliteration

This is when a number of words close together start with the same phoneme: The sneaky, slimy slug slipped outside.

Metaphor

This says that something is something else: The sun was a burning furnace.

Personification

Giving an object human characteristics: The branches of the tree grabbed at me and tried to pull me away!

Onomatopoeia

Words that sound like what they describe: Pop! Bang! Whizz! Splash!

Openers

Can you use an interesting opener to start your sentence?

